Fifth Sunday of Lent

“Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.” — Jn 12:24, 31-32

Fifth Sunday of Lent

“Now there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the feast. They came to Philip...and asked him, ‘Sir, we would like to see Jesus.’” It has begun. News of Jesus has spread beyond native-born, Aramaic-speaking Jews. We don’t know if the Greeks mentioned here heard of Jesus from fellow travelers or if news of this intriguing rabbi had reached all the way to their home. What we do know is that this interaction spurred an interesting comment from Jesus: “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.” In other words, it has begun. The time has come for the message to move beyond the geographic bounds of Israel.

But what does this message require? The Gospel is clear: “he said this indicating the kind of death he would die.” A grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies to its life as only a seed. A caterpillar takes on the appearance of temporary death in order to transform into a butterfly. In the Gospels, sacrifice and death are a way of becoming something more than you were before.

This Lent, new life can come from our sacrifices. When we enter into the season with Jesus, our difficulties can transform our perspective. “Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it produces much fruit.”

As we abstain from meat and fast from eating between meals, we can grow in compassion for the hungry. We can give alms of our time, sacrificially spending time with the lonely, the sick, and the marginalized. Our little Lenten “deaths” – death to unnecessary preferences, death to selfish living, death to ignorance of other’s pain – can bring new life to the world long after the season is over. This is the invitation this Sunday and every Lenten season, to begin anew from death to life.

Annual Diocesan RESPECT FOR LIFE MASS:

Celebrated by Most Rev. Gerard Paul Bergie, Bishop of St. Catharines. Cathedral of St. Catherine of Alexandria. Monday, April 9, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. A Special Diocesan Mass to thank God for the gift of life; to pray for human life in all its stages; to pray for those wounded by abortion. Reception to follow in the parish hall. Hosted by the Diocesan CWL, Information: Martina 289-686-6122 Diocesan Respect Life Committee.

Volunteers needed to lead the prayers of the Rosary at the Welland Hospital– Woolcott Wing about once a month. This traditional Catholic Prayer, based on the Bible, helps us contemplate the events in the life of Jesus and that of His Mother, Mary. For the residents there, it keeps them connected to their faith and helps strengthen it. Your leadership would give them the opportunity to honour our Lord and his Mother with this special prayer. If you think you could assist with this, please contact the office or speak with Deacon Jim.

Update on our Syrian Family: The Syrian Refugee Resettlement Committee and our Syrian Family would like to thank the parishioners of St Ann’s and St Elizabeth’s as well as Father Chad for all of their support in helping to bring this family here. They are very happy to be in Canada, have settled into their apartment in St. Catharines, and are getting to know their new home town. They are attending English classes in the community, and are looking forward to meeting all of you at Mass in the coming months. Please keep our second family in your prayers, as we wait, and hope for news of their expected arrival date.

Solidarity Sunday: We wish to thank you for your generosity on this Development and Peace Solidarity Sunday. Your donation will be used to help our sisters and brothers all over the world — from Lebanon to Cambodia, to Nigeria and beyond! The theme of our Share Lent campaign Together for Peace, invites us to build peace through dialogue and reconciliation and to consider mercy as a source of hope for the future. This is what Pope Francis underlined on the occasion of the Jubilee of Mercy: “Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope.” Thank you for helping us create a future filled with hope!

ATTENTION LECTORS: If you have been scheduled to read on Palm Sunday (March 24/25) or Good Friday (March 30), your binders are now available at the back of the church, with your name on it. Two readers are scheduled. Please contact each other and assign yourselves the parts for the long Gospel reading (Mark—for Palm Sunday) as well as the first & second readings and the petitions (petitions for Palm Sunday only). On your reading date, please bring the binders with you and leave them at the back of the church. Thank you.
